The Southern Asia Adventist Community Church is privileged to have Dr. Phodhas Ndamyumagabe, a faculty at Weimar, dept. of Theology, California; speak to us the weekend of March 27th & 28th, 2020. He is a survivor of the Rwanda Genocide (1994). His life was spared countless times as he fled to safety; and was forced to dig his grave twice. He will share his testimony, unlike any other, of God’s constant care, protection and deliverance from certain death.

Speaking appointments:
Friday, March 27th—7:15 PM: “Be Faithful till the End”
Saturday, March 28th—11:15 AM: “The power of waiting”
4:30 PM: “Saved in His service”

Venue: 1207 W. Cypress Ave. “First Lutheran Church”, Redlands, CA 92373
A vegetarian potluck will follow the church service!!
